

CALL FOR PAPERS

International Conference TIMTED 2013
"Current Economic Trends in Emerging and Developing Countries"
Timisoara (Romania), 6-8 June

The Faculty of Economics and Business Administration, The Oeconomica Timisiensis Foundation and The East-European Center for Research in Economics and Business (ECREB) are pleased to invite you to attend the first edition of The International Conference "Current Economic Trends in Emerging and Developing Countries" (TIMTED - 2013), which will be held from 6th to 8th June 2013, at the West University of Timisoara, Romania.

The conference addresses to all interested persons in the related field, academics and professionals as well, from all over the world.

The goal of the conference is to offer a high quality scientific environment for all participants, in order to meet, exchange and debate ideas, opinions and expertise. Subsidiary, the conference also encourages the submissions of interdisciplinary research, i.e. economics and business fields correlated with other areas, such as: sociology, politics, psychology etc.

The confirmed keynote speakers are:

- Francesco Forte, as special guest, Professor Emeritus of Sapienza University of Rome (Italy), who will present the lecture entitled "Public policy for European emerging countries. A public choice approach". Professor Forte is former Ministry of Finance of Italy, former president of the International Atlantic Economic Society and honorary president of the International Institute of Public Finance;
- Gareth Myles, who will present the lecture entitled "The consequences of economic crime". Dr. Myles is Professor of Economics at University of Exeter (United Kingdom), member of the Institute for Fiscal Studies and Editor of the scientific journal "Fiscal Studies".

TIMTED 2013's partners:

- International Network of Economic Research - INFER;
- Núcleo de Investigação em Finanças Públicas e Política Monetária - NIFIP.
